The Funds are actively managed by DJE and, where a benchmark index is indicated, without reference to it. The presented charts and tables concerning performance are based on our own calculations according to the gross performance (BVI) method² and illustrate past development. Past performance is not indicative for future returns. The BVI method takes into account all costs incurred at the fund level (e.g. management fees), the net performance and the issue fee. Additional individual costs may be incurred at the customer level (e.g. custodian fees, commission and other charges). Model calculation (net): an investor wishes to purchase shares for Euro 1,000. With a maximum issue surcharge of 0.00%, he has to spend a one-off amount of Euro 0.00 when making the purchase. In addition, there may be custodian costs that reduce performance. The custodian costs are decided by your bank's price list and service charges

MONTHLY COMMENTARY

The rise on the stock markets in March, as in the first quarter as a whole, was fuelled by good or improving economic data, which turned out better than widely expected. This turned fears of recession into hopes that a soft landing in the major economic regions was still possible. Expectations of interest rate cuts, which were still very high at the beginning of the year, have therefore shifted to the middle of the year. Especially as consumer prices in the USA rose again in February. Inflation was 3.2% compared to the previous year; in January it was 3.1%. Accordingly, the US Federal Reserve remained cautious and intends to wait for further data. In turn, the European Central Bank signalled in March that it might cut interest rates for the first time in June. In the eurozone, inflation fell to 2.6% year-on-year in February (January: 2.8%). The shift in interest rate expectations led to varying results on the bond markets. Government bonds largely moved sideways: yields on 10-year government bonds fell by 11 basis points in Germany and by 5 basis points in the USA to 2.29% and 4.20% respectively. Hopes of an economic recovery benefited high-quality corporate bonds, whose yields fell by 11 basis points to 5.30% in the USA and by 20 basis points to 3.66% in Europe. High-yield US corporate bonds also benefited from this, with yields also falling by 20 basis points to 7.66%. In contrast, yields on high-yield European corporate bonds rose by 27 basis points to 7.56%, as the economic environment in the eurozone is not as stable as in the USA and key interest rates are not expected to be lowered until June - meaning that growth will continue to be more expensive to finance. In this market environment, DJE - Zins Global gained 1.10%. The fund benefited in particular from the fall in risk premiums on high-quality corporate bonds and US high-yield bonds. Over the course of the month, the fund management acquired a US corporate bond from the basic materials sector and a euro-denominated corporate bond from the travel & leisure sector. In addition, a euro-denominated bond from the chemicals sector was also subscribed. In order to capitalise on the positive momentum in corporate bonds and to benefit from falling interest rates in the future, the fund management increased the modified duration of the portfolio (including cash and derivatives) from 3.31% to 3.61%. There were no currency hedges at the end of the month.

INVESTMENT APPROACH

DJE - Zins Global invests worldwide in a broadly diversified portfolio of high-quality government and corporate bonds. High-yield and emerging market bonds can be added. The selection of individual bonds depends largely on a fundamental assessment of the debtor's solvency and the corresponding yield valuation. The fund management emphasises a balanced mix of bonds with an attractive risk/reward ratio and strives to achieve an appropriate return. The currency risk of securities not denominated in euros can be partially or fully hedged depending on the market situation. The fund thus offers easy access to the global bond market and can serve as a basic investment.
